Providing Opportunities for Tomorrow's Christian Leaders.

November 11, 2009

Dear Friends,

Thanksgiving is one of my favorite holidays of the year. It offers the opportunity to spend time with my family and enjoy wonderful fellowship, but more importantly it is a time I am reminded of God's faithfulness. I recognize that God meets my needs and He blesses me daily beyond measure with His amazing grace and endless mercy.

In 2 Corinthians 9:7, Paul writes, "Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver." (KJV) God freely and cheerfully gives to us and He desires that we allow His Spirit to work in our lives to conform us into His image. God does not impose His image on us, but gave His Son as the example we are to strive to be like. It is my prayer during the Thanksgiving holiday that you will consider God's blessings on your family and how He would use you to bless others.

Thank you for being a blessing to the students at Wake Christian Academy through your continuing support of the Franklin Pierce Educational Foundation from which over 90 students are receiving financial assistance. We could not accomplish the work that is set before us without you. It is my hope and prayer that each of you have a Happy Thanksgiving.

In closing, thank you again for your prayers and support this month. We want you to know it is appreciated and will be used to further the kingdom of the Lord in the service of Wake Christian Academy.

In Christ,

H. Allan Swicegood
